

Get up close to nature at the International Biodiversity Day at Fleet Pond on Saturday 22nd May 11am to 4pm

-  Celebrate biodiversity with Fleet Pond Society and the OPAL Project.
-  Meet environmental groups from Imperial College, University College London and many more national and local groups.
-  Lots of hands-on activities about the wide variety of wildlife on our doorstep and about the environment we live in.
-  Guided walks, pond dipping, and tree-shaking for children, view insects close-up and through a microscope .
-  Visit www.fleetpondsociety.co.uk and www.OPALexploreNature.org

-  Look for lichens
-  Dip for daphne
-  Inspect insects
-  Shake silver birches..... or just
Walk (guided) on the Wild Side!

FLEET POND
SOCIETY

